On March 31, 2021, after only two quarters, Glacier Bancorp, Inc. (GBCI) announced an increase in the Company's quarterly cash dividend per share to $0.31 ($1.24 annualized) to be paid April 22, 2021 to shareholders of record on April 13, 2021. This newly declared dividend is up 3.3% from the $0.30 ($1.20 annualized) paid the last two quarters, and up 6.9% from the $0.29 per quarter ($1.16 annualized) paid a year earlier.

From the press release: "The Company has declared 144 consecutive quarterly dividends and has increased the dividend 47 times."

From October 2008 through October 2012, Glacier paid a dividend of $0.13 for 21 consecutive quarters. Therefore, we count this latest increase as nine and one-half consecutive annual dividend increases. Glacier is one of the very few banks that neither cut its dividend nor took TARP (Troubled Asset Relief Program) money during the financial crisis and therefore meets our stringent criteria for inclusion in Dearborn Partners Rising Dividend portfolios. So far this year, Glacier has also paid a special $0.15 per share dividend.

Glacier Bancorp, Inc. is the parent company for Glacier Bank and its bank divisions: Bank of the San Juans (Durango, CO), Citizens Community Bank (Pocatello, ID), Collegiate Peaks Bank (Buena Vista, CO), First Bank of Montana (Lewistown, MT), First Bank of Wyoming (Powell, WY), First Community Bank Utah (Layton, UT), First Security Bank (Bozeman, MT), First Security Bank of Missoula (Missoula, MT), First State Bank (Wheatland, WY), Glacier Bank (Kalispell, MT), Heritage Bank of Nevada (Reno, NV), Mountain West Bank (Coeur d'Alene, ID), North Cascades Bank (Chelan, WA), The Foothills Bank (Yuma, AZ), Valley Bank of Helena (Helena, MT), and Western Security Bank (Billings, MT).
