Another Dearborn Partners Core Rising Dividend SMA Portfolio Increase: Texas Instruments Incorporated

On September 21, 2023, Texas Instruments Incorporated (TI) announced a 4.8% increase in its quarterly dividend per share to $1.30 ($5.20 annually) from $1.24 ($4.96 annually). The cash dividend will be paid on November 14, 2023 to holders of record as of October 31, 2023.

From the press release:

The increase is consistent with TI's long-term objective for dividends by providing a sustainable and growing dividend and reflects the company's continued commitment to return all free cash flow to its owners over time. Today's announcement marks 20 consecutive years of dividend increases.

Texas Instruments Incorporated (Nasdaq: TXN) is a global semiconductor company that designs, manufactures, tests and sells analog and embedded processing chips for markets such as industrial, automotive, personal electronics, communications equipment and enterprise systems. Our passion to create a better world by making electronics more affordable through semiconductors is alive today, as each generation of innovation builds upon the last to make our technology smaller, more efficient, more reliable and more affordable – making it possible for semiconductors to go into electronics everywhere. We think of this as Engineering Progress. It's what we do and have been doing for decades.

Texas Instruments Incorporated is in the Information Technology sector of our Dearborn Partners Core Rising Dividend separately managed account (SMA) portfolio.
